PICKET LINE DO's AND DON'T's

We aim to communicate a positive message and a positive image of IBEW Local 46. Certain conduct, described below, works against our goal of a positive strike, can have serious financial consequences, and will not be tolerated. Picketers must comply with the following instructions:

1. There will be a designated Union staff member in charge of the picket line. You are to follow his/her instructions at all times.
 2. Before picketing, check the entrances of the picket site for signs designating specific contractors. Unless directed by the designated Union representative, you may picket only at the gate that identifies the contractor you are picketing.
 3. If a separate gate or a new entrance is established after you start picketing, notify the designated Union representative immediately.
 4. Do not, in any way, obstruct entrances or exits of the premises. Do not interfere with, or swarm, persons or vehicles entering or leaving the job.
 5. Hold no conversations with any truck drivers or other persons who attempt to make deliveries to projects or remove material from projects.
 6. Do not, in any way, encourage or induce people to leave the project or to quit work on the project.
 7. The precise number of pickets allowable will depend on the size of the area to patrol. Keep the size reasonable. Gathering/swarming in large intimidating groups can lead to limits on the number of pickets and/or monetary damages.
 8. You are only to carry the picket sign provided by Local 46. Do not bring your own picket sign nor alter in any fashion the one provided.
 9. You are not a picket without a picket sign. Carry a picket sign at all times that you are picketing. If you leave the designated picket area, leave your picket sign behind, cover it, or lower your picket sign as you move about.
 10. Picketing is confined to public areas surrounding the employer's premises, at the designated picketing areas. As a general rule, there should be no picketing on private property or in the streets. The picket sign should never go near a gate reserved for other contractors.
 11. Conduct picketing only where you have been directed by the designated Union representative.

12. Be enthusiastic in your support of the strike. Chanting and yelling is ok, so long as your chants and yells do not contain threats, slurs, or other forms of harassment based ethnic or national origin, color, race, religion, gender/sex, sexual orientation, etc.
 13. Bells and whistles are encouraged. Do not use any drums or sound amplification devices as they are prohibited unless specifically authorized by Local 46.
 14. With regard to chants about the strike, the following is approved: "Local 46 on strike, [target contractor] unfair." No other details should be given. Questions or requests for more specific information should be referred to the designated Union representative. Unauthorized, stray remarks can be very costly.
 15. Do not record any automobile or truck license or any other identifying information with regard to those who enter or leave the premises.
 16. Do not engage in arguments. Avoid confrontations. Do not make physical contact with anyone under any circumstances. Do not throw anything at the picket site.
 17. Do not behave in an intimidating manner. This includes, but is not limited to, carrying picket signs in a threatening manner, displaying weapons, following individuals to and from the picket site, making comments/references about individuals' families, and making such comments as "we know who you are", "we know where you live", "accidents happen on jobsites", and "we will remember you", etc.
 18. Do not photograph or videotape people entering or leaving the premises. Do not bring cameras or recording devices to the picket line.
 19. Alcohol, drugs, and weapons of any kind are prohibited on the picket line. Do not come to the picket line under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
 20. Do not litter. Maintain a clean picket area.
 21. Do not scatter nails or tacks, or other material around the picket area. Do not tamper with private property in or around the picket area.
 22. Do not engage in unnecessary conversation with anyone other than pickets. Refer all questions to the designated Union representative.

PICKETING

WHY WE PICKET

WE DO NOT PICKET

-just because we want to eat. We can eat at home or walking down the street.
-just because students in many other cities are picketing.
-to express our anger or resentment at anyone
-to humiliate or put anyone out of business

WE DO PICKET

-to protest the lack of dignity and respect shown us as human beings.
-to enlist the support of all (whatever their color) in getting services in business places that will grant us dignity and respect.
-to help the businessman make changes that will bring us closer to the Christian and Democratic practices.

WHO CAN PICKET

We welcome picketers of any race, high school age and beyond, ONLY if they agree THAT UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES will they resort to violence.

We will use picketers ONLY if they agree to go through a short course of instruction on picketing.

Picketing will be done at stated hours and days decided by the Executive Committee and under the direction of a Picket Captain, trained for this work. Picketers must promise to obey the captain at all times.

REMEMBER - the teachings of Jesus, who, "when reviled, reviled not again."

SOME DOS AND DON'TS FOR PICKETERS

DO....

-walk slowly and quietly - at least four feet apart.
-be careful to let anyone who wishes to enter the place of business do so.
-refer all incidents of jostling, abuse by word, or anything of this nature to the picket captain.
-be on time at the place set by the picket captain.
-leave the place of picketing promptly on being relieved.

DON'T....

-be boisterous, laugh or joke with other picketers or by-standers.
-hold conversation with by-standers or business owner.
-leave the picket line without notifying the captain.
-block the entrance or make it difficult for people to enter the business.
-come to the picket line without being neatly dressed.
-answer insult with insult, argument with argument, blow with blow, anger with anger.

REMEMBER - the example and teachings of Martin Luther King who refused to hate anyone, but stood in love and firmness for human dignity and respect.

GUIDELINES FOR H&R BLOCK PICKETERS

Be polite, neatly dressed, and well-mannered. Don't get into any arguments. Don't touch any customer in any manner. All American gun owners will be judged by your behavior.

Never block or impede the business entrance. Never block or impede the sidewalk or other public passage.

Have sufficient copies of our handout available for the picketing period. Select and append the name, address, and phone number of a local tax competitor before copying it. You may carry a neat picket sign, worded according to the sample available on our website. Do not hand out any other literature.

Simply approach arriving H&R Block customers, offer a handout, and say:

"I hope you'll consider having your taxes done somewhere else this year."

Arguments waste time you could spend reaching more receptive customers. Thank the argumentative customer for "listening to our issues," then move on.

If you are asked by the customer to explain the boycott, you may.

It is a national boycott is about social discrimination against gun owners and a broken promise by H&R Block. It is not about "revenge," or "destroying H&R Block's business." Our only goal is to obtain a public apology and a promise of equal treatment and consideration.

We are picketing because H&R Block has ignored a year's worth of letters and petitions, but has shown that picketing is certain to get their attention.

If you are scheduling your own picketing activities, try to concentrate on covering Saturdays first; then after-dinner hours (earlier days of the week are better). Weekday work hours will not be the most productive use of your time. The longer you picket a single office, the more effective the pressure will be.

If you are asked or told by the management to move on, inform them that it is your right to picket on public property. (NOTE: Malls and certain shopping center complexes are private property, and if you are told by an authority to leave those premises, you must. For best results, do not choose H&R Block offices in these locations. Instead, find offices that open onto public streets.)

If anyone asks for further information about the boycott or how to contact its organizers—where "anyone" includes customers, Block employees, or the press—refer them to the website address, which appears on the handout.

If you as a picket have any questions, contact your state coordinator, or write us at boycottblock@earthlink.net. Please do not give out that e-mail address.

Thank you for volunteering your time and commitment to picket for us.

Top Ten Reasons to Picket

10. You get to meet your union representatives in person.
9. You get fresh air and exercise.
8. You get to actually talk to your colleagues.
7. You get to find out how accurate the weather forecast was.
6. You don't have to worry that you forgot the keys to your office.
5. You finally get to choose your schedule and workload.
4. You have nothing to prep the night before except your peanut butter sandwiches for lunch.
3. After using the portable toilet, you remember why you don't like camping
2. You don't have to go outside to smoke,
... and the number one reason:
1. Free signs!

Picket Etiquette

Here are some tips for safe and productive picket duty:

1. Check in. Be sure to check in with your picket captain every time you arrive for your shift. If you show up for a different time slot than the one you originally selected, let the picket captain know this. It is your responsibility to sign in with the picket captain for every shift you work, or you will not be paid for those hours.
2. Be friendly and polite. Do not argue, or yell at people who are on the road or attempting to go into the buildings. Do not throw anything, or make obscene gestures. Treat everyone with dignity and respect, as you would expect to be treated.
3. Converse, and offer a leaflet. Engage and inform people you encounter to educate them about our legal strike. Encourage people in cars to roll down their windows and accept a leaflet. Do not become upset if they refuse.
4. Avoid conflict and confrontation. No matter how much someone tries to bait you, remain neutral and calm. Reiterate the union position on the strike (see "What Should I Say?" in yesterday's issue and on-line at www.opseu560.org). The purpose of a picket is to inform and persuade, not obstruct or alienate.
5. Stay safe. Look after yourself and don't put yourself in harm's way. Don't step in front of a vehicle to force it to stop.
6. Comply with Police. If police or security staff ask you to move or refrain from any action, do so.
7. Refer the Press. Please refer any and all members of the press to our union spokespersons. They have developed a clear and consistent message, and are prepared to field questions on our behalf.
8. Note and report. If you are harassed or threatened, or endangered by a car refusing to stop when requested, report the incident to your picket captain. Get a vehicle license number if possible.

Remember, our professional and moderate behaviour on the picket line strengthens our position. How we conduct ourselves on the picket line affects public opinion. Let's not give management a reason to deny us their co-operation.

Picketing

Please read and follow these instructions:

1. Dress as professionals (as you would for teaching; we recommend neckties and jackets), especially during the first few days of the strike, as this is when the press will be there.
2. Please park appropriately. Do not block driveways. We must be careful and do as little as annoy local residents.
3. General Guidelines include:
 - i. Picket signs will be provided. Carry them so they are readable. When your shift ends, turn them in to your captain.
 - ii. Picket ONLY on the sidewalk on the campus side of Route 206 (Lawrenceville) and, in Princeton, only in front of the designated gates (main and student center entrances). Keep the lines moving. Do not go farther than the campus boundaries. Do not picket in front of the gates and do not block any roadways. Do not stand in front of any trucks. Ask those who may try to cross the picket line to respect the strike by not crossing the picket line. There should be no physical blocks and no physical abuse. Avoid arrest. Act professionally.
 - iii. Do NOT stop traffic.
 - iv. Please do not go on campus when your shift ends. All professional activities must be conducted off campus.
 - v. Please refer to the talking points on page 3 of this document in communicating with the media or anyone who asks questions. Do NOT answer questions from anyone beyond the talking points. ALWAYS refer people to the picket shift captain, who will refer the media to the Jeff Halpern or Joel Phillips, the current AAUP President.
 - vi. Strike Headquarters will be the home of Nancy and Charles Richardson, 5 Twin Oaks Drive, Lawrenceville (right across from the main gate).
 - vii. The relief station for Princeton picketers will be the home of E. Graham McKinley, 391 Franklin Ave., Princeton (683-4060).

Where do we park?

- Park legally. Carpool.

What about the police?

- Your Takeover Committee has consulted with the local police and the City of Oshawa about the location, time, and purpose of the mass picket and march. The police understand and respect that the picket is part of a legal strike action. They will provide onsite support to ensure traffic and pedestrian safety.

What happens if the weather is terrible?

- Dress for the weather.

Are part-time teachers required to do picket duty if the day is a day they normally have off?

- No, part-time teachers would not be required to do picket duty on their day off. They could choose to support the strike action by joining the mass picket and march, but they would not receive strike pay.

What do we do if the media tries to ask us questions?

- Individual members should NOT speak to the media unless asked to do so by the local office. If a member of the media arrives they should be directed to the Local President.

COMMITTEE ON PICKETING AND OTHER LAWFUL DEMONSTRATIONS

REGULATIONS FOR PICKETING

PRECEPTS

Picketing is not an occasion for an assertion of personality, individuality, ego, rebellion, generalized non-conformity or anti-conformity. It is an occasion for an organized effort, by a group or a movement, as such, working in a calculated, coordinated fashion, to make its existence, message, and grievances known where they need to be known. Therefore the individual picketer serves, merely, to carry a sign or to increase the size of the demonstration; not he, but his sign should attract notice and attention.

People are much more likely to listen to, to examine, and hopefully, to accept new, controversial, unconventional, unorthodox, or unusual ideas and positions, if these are presented to them from sources bearing the symbols of acceptability, conventionality, and respectability, as arbitrary as those symbols may be. Good order, good appearance, and dignity of bearing are essential.

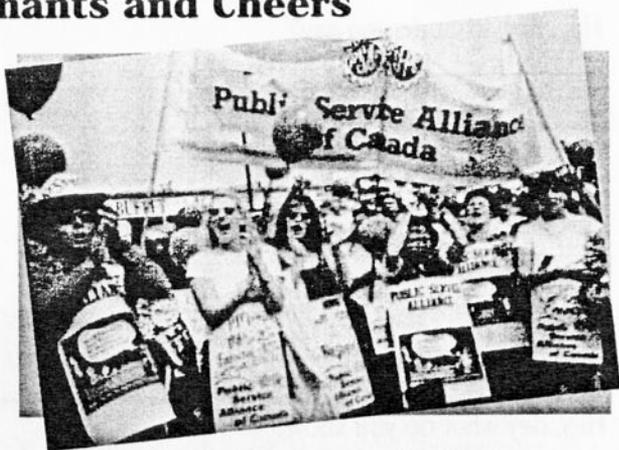

In order for a demonstration to be most effective, it must be well organized, and well disciplined. Signs must be well planned and carefully coordinated with each other and with the rationale for the demonstration.

The demonstration must have a well-defined purpose. The location of the demonstration must be clearly relevant to the purpose of the demonstration.

RULES

- A. Dress and appearance will be conservative and conventional.
 1. Men will wear suits, white shirts, ties; women will wear dresses.
 2. When outer clothing is required, overcoats, topcoats, raincoats will be worn, not jackets or other more casual, less formal outer wear.
 3. Picketers will be well-groomed; men will have recent haircuts and fresh shaves; the wearing of beards will be discouraged.
- B. Signs
 1. Legends on all signs must be approved in advance, through whatever coordinating machinery is set up for the purpose.
 2. Signs will be neatly and clearly lettered.
 3. Marchers will carry the signs assigned to them.
- C. Marching
 1. The order of the marchers and the signs will be established by those in charge of the demonstration. Signs will always be carried in the designated order.
 2. All inquiries will be referred to a previously designated spokesman or spokeswoman.
 3. There will be no exchanges of remarks between picketers and passers-by. Conversation and comments among the picketers will be kept to a minimum.
 4. Picketers will neither smoke nor take refreshment on the line.
 5. Picketers will leave the line only when absolutely necessary, as briefly as possible, and only a few at a time.

Chants and Cheers

Many of the chants in this section are taken from "Good Chants for a Lively Picket Line" written by Ruth Goldbaum and produced by the Greater Hartford Labor Council. Copies of the complete booklet are available from The Labor Heritage Foundation at:

<http://www.laborheritage.org/goodchants.html>

"In these times of renewed activism and organizing, good chants and songs can be important organizing and energizing tools and can really brighten a picketline and a rally. A picketline is in its glory when it has a few loud noisemakers to keep the step lively and the spirit strong!!! Homemade noisemakers work great and are so easy to make. Shakers using empty soda cans and filled with beans, pebbles or ballbearings and covered with tape can make a powerful sound. Whistles, bicycle horns, cowbells and drums made of pots, pans and spoons sound great, too."

Ruth Goldbaum, "Good Chants for a Lively Picket Line" Greater Hartford Labour Council.

Popular activism has its roots in the Latin and South Americas. This is a powerful Spanish chant:

Un pueblo, unido

Jamà sera vencido!

(A people, united, will never be defeated!)

Gay, straight, black, white. Same struggle, same fight.

Give me a U - N - I - O - N! What's that spell?

Our world is not for sale! (anti G8 slogan)

GENERAL PICKETING GUIDELINES ACTIONS

DO:

- Report for work at your regularly scheduled hours. If denied entrance, record the available details, including times, names of pickets, what was said, witnesses or other pertinent information and report to security or your supervisor. It is extremely important to prepare an immediate written account of the text displayed on any picket signs, with as much precision concerning the words used as the circumstances warrant. Do not wait until photographic documentation can be arranged.
- Conduct yourself in a polite, businesslike manner when you come in contact with the picketers.
- Use extreme patience and caution if passing through a picket line.
- Record in detail any incident that you are involved in or witness involving any threats, physical violence or picket line misconduct such as: brandishing weapons; throwing stones; rocking cars; spreading tacks on highways; property damage.

DO NOT:

- Force an entry into the site if picketers are blocking you.
- Make snide remarks to picketers.
- Threaten, taunt or insult picketers.
- Make threatening gestures to the picketers.
- Inflame or create hostile attitudes.
- Make any statements to the press or other public media. (All questions from the media must be directed to External Affairs.)
